

Medford REALTOR® Wins Distinguished Service Award

Members of the Oregon Association of REALTORS® (OAR) have honored local REALTOR® and community leader, Don Livingood, with the 2019 Distinguished Service Award. The award, one of the highest granted by the Association, will be bestowed in Salem at the Salem Convention Center on Wednesday, October 2, 2019 at the Distinguished Service Award Luncheon held during the 2019 OAR Fall Convention & Trade Show.

The OAR Distinguished Service Award was established in 1993 to recognize outstanding service and contributions to the Association over a period of at least 10 years. Criteria for the award includes service in areas such as committee membership, committee leadership, and service as a state director, officer or National Association of REALTORS® director. Since the Award's inception, 30 Oregon REALTORS® have been selected to receive this industry driven recognition.

Don Livingood, Windermere Van Vleet Jacksonville, is a member of the Rogue Valley Association of REALTORS®. In 2012, Don was presented the Rogue Valley Association of REALTORS® REALTOR® of the Year award. The following year he was elected President of the local association.

Don has also been active at the state and national levels for real estate. He has been a voice for real estate on the Government Affairs Committee and has served as a State Director.

More than anything, Don is dedicated to his local community. He is active in Rotary, Medford Kiwanis Club and is on the board for the Children's Advocacy Center. Before his life in real estate, Don spent 29 years with the Medford Police Department.

Don Livingood was selected as the recipient of the 2019 OAR Distinguished Service Award by a committee of his peers based on his outstanding legacy of work in his local, state, and national REALTOR® communities. His service, at every level, is to be commended. Please join us in saying, CONGRATULATIONS!
